Plot

The novel follows the story of Rakhmetov, a young revolutionary who is dedicated to overthrowing the Tsarist government. Rakhmetov is a highly disciplined and ascetic individual who lives a simple life devoted to his revolutionary cause. He is also a skilled organizer and tactician, and he plays a key role in planning and executing the revolutionary uprising.

The novel also follows the story of Lopukhov, a young doctor who is secretly a member of the revolutionary movement. Lopukhov is a kind and compassionate individual who is dedicated to helping the poor and oppressed. He falls in love with Vera Pavlovna, a young woman who is also a member of the revolutionary movement.

The novel climaxes with the revolutionary uprising, which is ultimately unsuccessful. Rakhmetov is arrested and executed, and Lopukhov and Vera Pavlovna are forced to flee the country. However, the novel ends on a note of hope, as the revolutionaries continue to fight for their cause.
